

Midstate Amusement Games Guide To All Our Dart League Organizations

MIDSTATE AMUSEMENTS

That's us! We run your local traveling & remote dart leagues. Midstate is a member of several organizations to offer our players even more opportunities to play darts; each of these organizations are separate entities with their own rules and perks. You can ask Alicia, Mel, or Emily for more details about our leagues or these other organizations!

WAMO

Wisconsin Amusement & Music Operators (WAMO) is the state dart league sanctioning association. You only pay for sanctioning once per league year no matter how many of our leagues you play in. Play 60+ games in a WAMO sanctioned league by March 1 to qualify for the WAMO State Dart Tournament each May.

NDA

National Dart Association (NDA or AMOA-NDA) is the worldwide dart sanctioning organization. NDA offers monthly remote tournaments as well regional tournament around the US which you qualify for by playing in our NDA sanctioned leagues. NDA sanctioning is $10 per person per league year. Qualify for Team Dart in Vegas each year by playing 96+ games by early February.

PPD

Partners Promoting Darts (PPD) offers remote leagues, daily remote tournaments (drts), and larger weekend remote tournaments; earn points for playing in both our and their leagues. The PPD Tournament of Champions (TOC) is in Kansas City, MO each October. Midstate buys 16 mens & 8 womens vouchers each year, awarded to our top point earning players. Traveling & Remote Leagues earn 20 points (in-house leagues earn 10, drts earn 4 points). PPD's year ends July 14; then our vouchers are awarded.

NADO

North American Dart Organization (NADO) offers remote leagues & tournaments. You earn 2 points for each league match you play (max 75pts) in any NADO sanctioned leagues and 5 points in NADO sanctioned tournaments (max 60pts) plus bonus points for placing in tourneys. Earn 75+ points to be invited to the Midstate NADO Finale in August. Participating in that also earns 26+ points towards the bonus pool money awarded after our finale. The NADO year ends June 30, and the Intercontinental Finale is held in Indianapolis, IN each October.
